

THE GRAIN SHED

SPOKANE, WA

The Grain Shed is a worker-owned cooperative located in Spokane's South Perry neighborhood. Their wood-fired oven is roaring by 3 AM every morning so that staff can bake more than 200 loaves of bread each day plus a full spread of pastries for their devoted local customers. The Grain Shed mills all its own flour using grains grown less than 70 miles south in the Palouse. They specialize in recipes featuring landrace varieties and ancient grains like einkorn and spelt that are inherently healthier and more flavorful than modern grains.
